Dear Pearl:

Enclosed is check closing the SEAALL account here and transferring funds to you as new treasurer. As usual, I'm running late on everything. I suppose that the first things to do are to make the two donations (to building fund and for scholarship), and to send out statements for this year's dues.

I do hope that your Mother is all right - I know what a strain you must have been working under. We still hope that you will be able to come down to see us soon. Pauline is getting along very well, is now at home and hopes to be able to stand on her broken leg by the first of the month.

Sincerely,

Mary Polk Green
